“Clients value my pragmatic and thoughtful approach to resolving legal problems; the first step in that process is listening. Having been a client myself for several years, I am adept at assessing risk and reward, cost and benefit, recognizing when a case should be tried, and when a dispute is best resolved outside of the courtroom.”

C. Marie Eckert is a successful litigator who has tried cases in state, federal, and bankruptcy courts. She has a broad range of experience, with a particular focus in trusts and estates litigation, financial institutions litigation, business litigation, and insurance recovery matters.

A sampling of her clients include financial institutions, trustees, beneficiaries, corporate shareholders, business owners, manufacturers, franchisees, and non-profits. Marie has handled a wide range of complex commercial cases, including contract and business valuation disputes, business torts, lender liability claims, employment, and environmental litigation. She takes a pragmatic, solution-driven approach to resolving disputes and enjoys helping clients achieve the best outcome in the most effective and cost-efficient way possible.

Prior to joining Miller Nash in 2002, Marie was a commercial litigator and then worked at U.S. Bancorp as a litigation manager and senior corporate counsel in charge of litigation for a six-state region.
