“I believe that excellent advocacy requires a deep understanding of clients’ stories and goals. I collaborate with clients to develop a thorough, cost-effective dispute resolution strategy, whether through early negotiation, alternative dispute resolution, or litigation.”

Carrie Mount represents commercial policyholders by providing counsel for insurance-related issues and advocacy in disputes with insurers. She has recovered millions of dollars for her clients in a variety of contexts, including in claim negotiations, mediations, appraisals, and litigation through trial.

Carrie is proficient in many coverage lines, including commercial general liability, property, errors and omissions liability (E&O), directors and officers liability (D&O), cyber, inland marine, and builder’s risk. Her creative problem solving combined with her substantive understanding of insurance coverage makes Carrie an indispensable advocate for policyholders.

Carrie also serves as the co-leader of the firm’s insurance recovery team.
